

Nixon Willing To Debate All Kennedy Family

GOP Leader Calls Jack 'Juvenile' for Tying Ike to Dare

EN ROUTE WITH NIXON (AP)—Vice President Richard M. Nixon says he is willing to take on the whole family of Sen. John F. Kennedy, his Democratic opponent, in a national television debate.

In a foray into New Jersey on a rain-sodden Halloween night Nixon told an open air crowd of 15,000 persons at Ridgewood Monday night his rival was making a "juvenile schoolboy comment" in saying he would be glad to have Nixon bring President Eisenhower along with him if a fifth television debate could be arranged.

"I'll be glad to debate him and his whole family anytime," Nixon said, "but what I think the country really needs is a debate between Jack and Lyndon — let's see where they stand."

This allusion to the Democratic vice presidential nominee, Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, was made as Nixon's own running mate, Henry Cabot Lodge, sat beside him on the platform.

Presumably Nixon's challenge would include the Democratic nominee's father, Joseph P. Kennedy, wealthy former ambassador who has tried to keep out of the campaign as well as Kennedy's brothers who are active in it.

Nixon aimed increasingly sharper shafts at his opponent as he swung into the final week of campaigning with scheduled appearances today at Lancaster and Erie in Pennsylvania and Syracuse and Rochester in New York.

The vice president said Kennedy shows such an "ignorance of simple economics" that he disqualifies himself to be president."

Nixon issued a statement in which he said Kennedy in proposing $15 billion in additional yearly expenditures is promising to balance the budget and opposes higher taxes. He said his rival has "made so many promises to so many people they are colluding with each other."

"One thing is certain," Nixon said, "Sen. Kennedy has set a new all-time record for promises, promises all logic shows he could not keep."

Nixon issued a statement in Philadelphia, where he spent the night, calling for a doubling of the present authorization for admission of 154,000 immigrants yearly.

He proposed that largely unused quotas such as that for Great Britain be distributed to other countries and called for special treatment of relatives of Americans.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The president of the American Medical Association says the people of this country "have become obsessed with health" to the point where "we have become a land of hypochondriacs" — imagining ailments that don't exist.

"You will not find good health in a salesman's bag of pills," adds Dr. E. Vincent Askey of Los Angeles.

"You won't find it in food supplements.

"You won't find it in unnecessary vitamins . . .

"You won't bask in the sunshine of radiant health by dutifully swallowing yogurt-and-alalfa diets.

"Good health is really quite cheap," Dr. Askey told the Columbus Rotary Club Monday. "It is not found in bottles, boxes, organic fields, health food shops or health clubs.

"It can be had through a well-balanced diet, sufficient exercise which gets all the vitamins and minerals he needs from a well-balanced diet," Dr. Askey said.

Yet, he added, "Americans spend billions of dollars each year for self-medication—most of which is unnecessary, costly and sometimes dangerous to their health."

Kennedy Starts Week's Tour Of 17 States

Dem Claims Nixon Reverses 25-Year Republican Policy

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Sen. John F. Kennedy spanned the continent today, opening an intensified drive that will carry him to 17 states in the final week of the presidential campaign.

Opening two days of campaigning here and in San Francisco Kennedy charged that Vice President Richard M. Nixon two days ago reversed the Republican policy of 25 years by advocating improvements in the Social Security system.

In remarks prepared for a clothing workers' rally here, the Democratic presidential candidate said, "Mr. Nixon has taken every program which he and his party have voted and fought against, and placed them in his position paper. But election week promises and November nostrums will not meet the urgent problems of our older citizens. They need leadership from the White House."

Kennedy made a point by point criticism of Nixon's recently issued "position paper" on Social Security.

He said "most amazing of all" in the Nixon paper was the statement, "We must make it possible for our senior citizens to receive adequate medical services."

Kennedy said, "This is the same Mr. Nixon who, only last spring, led the fight to defeat Democratic efforts to pass a sound program of medical aid financed through the Social Security system."

"I disagree with Mr. Nixon," Kennedy added. "For the problems of our older citizens will not be solved through position papers—through promises which the record shows are unmatched by the desire to act."

At a vociferous student rally at Temple University in Philadelphia Monday, Kennedy issued a scornful, taunting challenge to Nixon to bring President Eisenhower along to help him on a fifth television debate.

Kennedy's challenge to Nixon to bring Eisenhower along for a final debate was in a mocking vein and obviously was not expected to be taken seriously. In it he mentioned Eisenhower by name, something he rarely does. He usually refers only to "this administration" or "Republican leadership."

Spear Gun Is Used In Love Rival Attack

Highway Patrol Post Here Opens Operations Today

Circleville's law enforcement has advanced another notch with today's opening of a State Highway Patrol post here.

The post is at 705 S. Court St., the same building housing offices of the Crittes Milling Co. Lt. E. A. McKee, commanding officer of Patrol District No. 6 with headquarters in Columbus, said the official designation here is Patrol Post No. 65.

Lt. McKee said the operation involves moving the Columbus Post here. It formerly was located at the Training Academy at the old Hartman farm on S. High St. and was known as Post No. 25.

Commanding the new installation is Corporal K. N. Taylor, a veteran of 19 years with the State Highway Patrol. He is a native of Marietta and now makes his home in Columbus.

Other patrol posts in the Columbus District are at London, Delaware, Mt. Vernon, Hebron and Lancaster.

The telephone number of the Circleville Post is GR 4-2050.

With the change in location of the Columbus Post, Cpl. Taylor said there would be vacancies for cadet dispatchers. He urged young men in this area interested in law enforcement as a career to inquire at the post regarding these jobs.

CPL. Taylor said cadet dispatchers must meet the same requirements as regular officers.

Activity at the post yesterday included getting squared away for full time operations. A huge radio tower extending more than 100 feet high has been erected to guarantee far reaching communications and telephone lines have been installed.

The telephone number of the Circleville Post is GR 4-2050. Officers will be on duty 24 hours a day to accept calls from the public for information or to report emergencies on the highways.

Another 'American Spy' Claimed Captured in Soviet

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet news agency Tass said today an "American spy" named Mikhail Platovskiy has been arrested in the Soviet Union.

The Tass account, which also was carried by Moscow radio, said Platovskiy — alias Andrei Kreps and Pyotr Sosnovsky — was smuggled into the Soviet Union with another alleged spy named V. M. Slovnov.

No mention was made of Platovskiy's nationality and, beyond saying he was trained in West Germany, Tass gave no further identifying data.

The announcement came five days after the arrest in New York of Igor Y. Melekh, 47, chief of the Soviet section of U. N. document translations, on a charge of espionage. Arrested with Melekh by the FBI was Willie Hirsch, 52, a German medical illustrator.

Platovskiy was instructed by the American intelligence service to take up residence in Minsk and start collecting secret information, the Tass announcement said.

When arrested he was found to possess two radio transmitters, ciphers, codes, duplicating equipment for printing anti-Soviet leaflets and other espionage gear.

Tass said Platovskiy had been trained as a spy by U. S. intelligence officers in espionage schools at the West German cities of Bad Homburg, Kaufbeuren and Alatsee over a nine-month period, his courses including pistol shooting and parachute jumping.

The Soviet Union announced the arrest of Slovnov last Aug. 2, saying at that time he had been trained in spying by U. S. intelligence officers in West Germany.

Technicians from the seized Shell, Esso Standard and Texaco oil refineries, now operated by the government petroleum monopoly, are among those who got away.

"It's beginning to pinch," one Cuban professional man said. "That's why Castro is imposing new restrictions on travel for many classes of people."

Cardinal Calls Masonic Tale Colossal Lie

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — The Catholic archbishop of Boston said Monday night that he had been accused by a Masonic official of once influencing a Senate vote by Democratic presidential candidate John F. Kennedy. He termed it a "colossal lie."

Richard Cardinal Cushing made the statement in informal remarks preceding an address before the 30th biennial convention of the National Council of Catholic Women.

The archbishop, protesting that he had been dragged into the 1960 political picture, made no direct mention of the fact Sen. Kennedy is a Catholic.

But he said: "I am trying to find out what we have to do to convince people that a Catholic merely by the force of his faith should be and is bound to be an honorable, loyal and faithful citizen of the country."

Cardinal Cushing said, "I received this morning—and I have here in my pocket—an editorial written by a high authority in a branch of the Masonic order.

"In that editorial I am specifically blamed as the man who on one occasion obliged Sen. Kennedy to change his vote in a matter of a bill pertaining to federal aid to education. That charge is a colossal lie."

He did not identify the writer of the editorial or the publication that carried it.

Mechanical Age Plays Big Role In Elections

Voting Machines Get Wider Use This Year; Cameras Help Tally

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — The mechanical age moves steadily into the voting booths—both in aiding the voter and in satisfying public curiosity as to election results.

Getting out the vote is the major concern of politicians in the next seven days. Then the big job is getting it recorded and tallied. Finally comes the exciting task of the news media—getting the results to the people.

Next Tuesday, an estimated 110,000 voting machines will be used by about half of those going to the polls. Ten years ago only a third of a smaller total electorate used machines instead of the old pencil and paper method which is still going strong in half of the precincts.

In some polling places Tuesday, cameras will be used to speed the tallying of the votes as recorded by machines.

Voting machine makers say the big march of their products into the polling booths has come since World War II.

The first mechanical vote recorder was patented by Thomas Alva Edison in 1869. His electrographic vote recorder was designed for use in counting ballots in Congress, but the nation's sons would have none of it.

Officials of Shoup Voting Machine Co., New York City, say machines of various makes will be used to some extent in 44 states Tuesday. They say seven states will use them exclusively: Rhode Island, Connecticut, Delaware, Maryland, Louisiana, New York and Kentucky.

Automatic Voting Machine, a division of Rockwell Manufacturing Co., says it makes machines in four standard sizes because the length of ballots differs greatly among states and communities. It puts the costs of machines at roughly $1,500 to $1,800.

Other manufacturers also bring out voting machines. All have locking devices aimed at preventing fraudulent manipulation.

The first voters to use machines were those in Lockport, N.Y., in 1892. The gadget was invented by Jacob H. Myers, but proved unpopular because it was too massive. This was simplified in 1898 by a predecessor of Automatic Voting Machine. In 1903, a roller interlock system was invented.

Shoup entered the market in 1932 with a machine which carried the names on the ballot vertically, as do the paper hand ballots, rather than the horizontal type of arrangement in use before and since. Shoup officials think this is simpler for voters using machines for the first time.

The locking devices on the machines not only prevent fraudulent manipulation but also, according to their makers, prevent misvoting—and thus ruining ballots. For an example: if you're to vote for five out of six aldermen candidates the machine locks after you've voted for five. By hand you might mark six names, and the ballot would be tossed out.

Shoup has just introduced an identograph which photographs the camera takes an average of five minutes in peering at each machine, with one minute of that for developing the picture. It also documents mechanically by having county, precinct and ward numbers, machine numbers, election clerk's signature photographed into each picture.

Voting machines get the results to news services pronto. But the sales talk machine salesmen give voting officials is that of cutting costs—fewer clerks working less time, smaller volume of printing, and often even fewer polling places. In time that pays for the machines.

Jimmie Rodgers Makes Film After Refusing Many Roles

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Another pop singer has been enlisted for movies, but this one is different: He's neither Italian nor hillbilly.

Jimmie Rodgers can belt out a folk tune and play a guitar, but he's no rock 'n' roller and he hails from no farther south than Camas, Wash. His good looks and sincere approach have won him a starring role in his first movie, "The Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come."

Old-timers will recall the 1928 version that starred Richard Barthelmess. It's the story of a shepherd boy who lives in the Southern valley of Kingdom Come and returns to his native north to fight his onetime friends in the Civil War. Lots of heart, and that's just what Jimmie was looking for.

"I could have done pictures before now," said the serious young

Ohioan's Idea To Swap Art Paying Off

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Stelson M. Stelson's idea for a way of building up United States-Japanese friendship is paying off.

Stelson is chairman of the Americanism Committee of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, and now is with the publications bureau at the Army's Columbus General Depot.

The idea, conceived by Stelson after service in the Korean War, is simply the exchange of school children's art work for exhibition in Japanese and American cities.

Already hundreds of pictures have been exchanged and exhibited in both countries. Stelson explained that it is the custom in Japan for department stores to display the art work of school children as well as all art work produced by Japanese and foreign artists.

His hope is that through Ohio schools and schools in other states, art work produced in the elementary and high schools after the schools are through with them, will be gathered together and displayed chosen for exhibition in audiences.

"I've been doing night clubs for the past four years, and I did them for three and a half years before I had my first hit record," he said. "I've seen every kind of audience."

Truman To Shun Any Appointment

NEW YORK (AP) — Former President Harry S. Truman said today he does not want any political appointment if a Democratic administration is elected Nov. 8.

Truman, campaigning for Sen. John F. Kennedy, the Democratic presidential nominee, told newsmen on arriving here from his home in Independence, Mo.: "I have had all the political jobs I want."

Truman said he came here to "do a little campaigning and, of course, to see my grandchildren."

He was met at Pennsylvania Station by his daughter, Mrs. Clifton Daniel.

Stelson said he would be glad to help teachers and pupils of any Ohio school arrange the art exchange, and that if they're interested they can write him at the Columbus General Depot.

"Art and music have no language barriers," Stelson says. "Children behave the same all over the world. They made friends easily. Believe me, an American child's drawing exhibited in Japan will create more good will, warmer friendship and admiration by parents than any other media."

Stelson said he would be glad to help teachers and pupils of any Ohio school arrange the art exchange, and that if they're interested they can write him at the Columbus General Depot.

Mechanical Age Plays Big Role In Elections

Voting Machines Get Wider Use This Year; Cameras Help Tally

By SAM DAWSON

AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP) — The mechanical age moves steadily into the voting booths—both in aiding the voter and in satisfying public curiosity as to election results.

Getting out the vote is the major concern of politicians in the next seven days. Then the big job is getting it recorded and tallied. Finally comes the exciting task of the news media—getting the results to the people.

Next Tuesday, an estimated 110,000 voting machines will be used by about half of those going to the polls. Ten years ago only a third of a smaller total electorate used machines instead of the old pencil and paper method which is still going strong in half of the precincts.

In some polling places Tuesday, cameras will be used to speed the tallying of the votes as recorded by machines.

Voting machine makers say the big march of their products into the polling booths has come since World War II.

The first mechanical vote recorder was patented by Thomas Alva Edison in 1890. His electrographic vote recorder was designed for use in counting ballots in Congress, but the nation's sons would have none of it.

Officials of Shoup Voting Machine Co., New York City, say machines of various makes will be used to some extent in 44 states Tuesday. They say seven states will use them exclusively: Rhode Island, Connecticut, Delaware, Maryland, Louisiana, New York and Kentucky.

Automatic Voting Machine, a division of Rockwell Manufacturing Co., says it makes machines in four standard sizes because the length of ballots differs greatly among states and communities. It puts the costs of machines at roughly $1,500 to $1,800.

Other manufacturers also bring out voting machines. All have locking devices aimed at preventing fraudulent manipulation.

The first voters to use machines were those in Lockport, N.Y., in 1892. The gadget was invented by Jacob H. Myers, but proved unpopular because it was too massive. This was simplified in 1898 by a predecessor of Automatic Voting Machine. In 1903, a roller interlock system was invented.

Shoup entered the market in 1932 with a machine which carried the names on the ballot vertically, as do the paper hand ballots, rather than the horizontal type of arrangement in use before and since. Shoup officials think this is simpler for voters using machines for the first time.

The locking devices on the machines not only prevent fraudulent manipulation but also, according to their makers, prevent misvoting—and thus ruining ballots. For an example: if you're to vote for five out of six aldermen candidates the machine locks after you've voted for five. By hand you might mark six names, and the ballot would be tossed out.

Shoup has just introduced an identograph which photographs the camera takes an average of five minutes in peering at each machine, with one minute of that for developing the picture. It also documents mechanically by having county, precinct and ward numbers, machine numbers, election clerk's signature photographed into each picture.

Voting machines get the results to news services pronto. But the sales talk machine salesmen give voting officials is that of cutting costs—fewer clerks working less time, smaller volume of printing, and often even fewer polling places. In time that pays for the machines.

'Consequences' Dog GOP 'Truth Squad'

PAINESVILLE Ohio (AP) — Lake County Democrats have their own answer to the Republican "truth squad"—they call it "consequences."

"The Republicans in this county have not told the truth, now will pay the consequences," said Lake County Commissioner John D. Hadden today in announcing formation of the Democratic unit.

The group disputed what it called Republican misrepresentations on the Democratic presidential candidate.

GOP "truth squads" have been trailing Sen. John F. Kennedy around the country, attacking what they refer to as misrepresentations by the Democratic presidential candidate.

Conant Eyes Junior High

Educators will not tumble over themselves in hasty adoption of the recommendations growing out of Dr. James Conant's year-long survey of the nation's junior high schools, but they can not easily brush his suggestions aside. Dr. Conant is not only one of the most noted educators of the United States, he is probably the leading one.

Dr. Conant has gained the confidence of educators and the public alike because he is a strong advocate of education through strict adherence to fundamentals. He does not subscribe to the country club atmosphere some well-meaning administrators attempt to instill in high schools. He does not place much importance on organized sports as a toll of education. He emphatically does not subscribe to crash programs of concentration upon one field or another in reaction to world pressures.

From his research on the subjects offered in 237 junior high schools, Dr. Conant has reached the critical conclusion that too much time is wasted on what should be extra-curricular activities and too little time is spent in providing the fundamentals necessary before a student can cope with the serious work of high school.

Specifically, grades 7 through 9 were found to be deficient in reading, composition and arithmetic. There are also too few study periods, and Dr. Conant recommends that home economics be required for all girls and industrial arts for all boys. One of the tests suggested to insure the successful completion of junior high school was the ability to read a newspaper at a speed of 200 words a minute and understand what is read.

These recommendations will disappoint anyone expecting something new and exciting from a critic of the public school system, but they appear as wise findings to both teachers and parents who might wonder — while reviewing the busy schedule of today's student — when there is time for learning.

It is not necessary to offer the enticements of a new and glittering program to improve the quality of education. One of the troubles with some public school systems in past years has been the acceptance of glittering promises and revolutionary theories in an almost eager dismissal of methods which are old, but effective.

Dr. Conant has given all concerned with the quality of education — and that excludes few — not only a listing of areas in which education is weak, but suggestions for correcting them.

Singing High 'X' Is Hard Work

NEW YORK (AP) — "Opera takes a lot out of you," said Dorothy Kirsten.

"Singing a high 'X' is equivalent to lifting a 500-pound weight."

Because of the emotional drain, too, the glamorous blonde Metropolitan Opera star doesn't like to sing a heavy role more than once every fourth day.

Top opera stars — like championship boxers — make a ritual of keeping in the best of physical condition. Her training secret is golf.

"It's the perfect sport for a singer," she said. "It helps develop rhythm and proper breathing."

Miss Kirsten came from a show-business family. Her great aunt was a gifted soprano, and her grandfather was bandleader for Buffalo Bill's Wild West show.

As a young girl in Montclair, N.J., she studied singing, dancing and acting. She sang swing music with Kate Smith for two years, later became a protege of Grace Moore, who helped develop her interest in opera.

Miss Kirsten now travels between 75,000 and 100,000 miles a year. Besides her operatic appearances, she does some 20 concerts a year, and appears as guest star on numerous TV programs.

It has been said that behind every successful man is a good woman. She says that behind her success is a good man — her husband, Dr. John D. French, a neurosurgeon.

"The most important thing to me is the happiness I know in my private life," she says.

"When I am happy, I sing my best. This is not true of all artists, but it is true of me. My husband keeps me happy. He is a wonderful man."

"I am never — absolutely never — away from my husband more than three weeks at a time."

"This means I have to do much more traveling, but it's worth while to me."

Because of her refusal to be away from her Palos Verdes, Calif., home for extended periods, she quit the Metropolitan Opera a couple of seasons back.

She won her point. The Met called her back during an emergency last April, but she rejoined on her own terms. She now is a jet plane commuter between Manhattan and the West Coast.

One does not become a diva by accident, but by long and grueling work — and the work gets harder when the fame begins. Miss Kirsten has 30 roles in her repertoire, but each summer spends a month to six weeks perfecting herself in new roles.

She is one of the world's best-known dramatic sopranos in Puccini and Verdi operas but says her big goal is "to find a really good new American opera — and sing it in English."

What is the greatest penalty of operatic stardom?

"Being unable to get out of the public eye," she said. "They want you to be what their own idea of you is. You can't always — sometimes you disillusion them."

The biggest sacrifice a prima donna has to make is this: She has to look, dress and act like a prima donna — even when she doesn't feel like one. But it gets to be a habit, and you learn to do it."

This doesn't, in her view, mean that a prima donna is necessarily temperamental or hard to get along with.

"I have had the same secretary for 14 years," she said drily. "I don't know many tenors who can make that claim."

Eric Chester, who was 8 years old October 25, celebrated his birthday at a dinner party given Tuesday evening at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Miles R. Chester, Route 1, Kingston.

Games were played and favors and prizes were given to each guest who were:

Katrina, Randy and Mark Swepston, Philip, David and Mark Roe, Connie, Tom and Lee Ann Swepston, Marilyn Vaughn, Leanna, Eric, and Tarkio Chester. Adults present were Mrs. Malvin Swepston, Mrs. Merrill Vaughn, Mrs. James Roe, and Mrs. Miles R. Chester.

Mrs. George Wolfe and daughters, Sidney and Winifred of Delaware visited from Friday evening through Saturday with their aunts, Mrs. D. H. Dreisbach and Miss Orr Rittenour in Kingston.

SUNDAY GUESTS OF MRS. LOIS JONES AND MISS MARGARET THOMAS were two friends from high school days, Miss Florence Edmund of Toledo, and Miss Rosetta Crist of Granville.

THE LADIES Guild of the Mt. Pleasant Presbyterian Church, Kingston, was entertained Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Jack Smith, with Mrs. Robert Jones assisting.

Mrs. E. V. Graves presided, and Mrs. Thoburn Orr gave devotions. The lesson from the study book "Africa" was also given by Mrs. Orr.

Reports were given of the Scioto Presbyterians meeting held at Portsmouth recently.

The Life Story of Richard Nixon

Illustrated by A. S. Packer

RICHARD NIXON, with characteristic grit, worked his way through Whittier College. He still helped out in the family store. Once in a while he would give his mother a hand with the dishes, but he always pulled the blinds so people couldn't see him at this kind of chore. Dick graduated with an A.B. degree in 1934, second in his class . . .

. . . Dick's outstanding achievements at Whittier earned him a scholarship to Duke University's law school. But even with the help of a scholarship Nixon was constantly strapped for money at Duke. To help conserve his meager funds Dick lived with three other students in a small shack in a wooded patch a mile and a half from the university. After taking his law degree in 1937, Nixon returned to Whittier and opened a California law office . . .

. . . Like any other professional man, Nixon plunged into the various community activities. He joined the chamber of commerce, civic clubs, even acted in a Little Theater group. Once he played a district attorney opposite pretty Patricia Ryan, a local high school teacher. The stage roles ultimately led to a real life romance, and Dick and Pat Ryan were married in 1940. TV Debates Are Old Hat in Finland

CINCINNATI (AP) — Televised political debates are somewhat old hat in Finland, say group of Finnish visitors.

Finland had TV political discussions for the first time before elections last summer. And instead of two political parties, 10 parties took part.

The group of 40 business and professional men and women from the city of Tampere, stopped at Cincinnati Sunday on a three-week tour of the United States.

Nikko Nuppenen, one of the group leaders, said TV is only two years old in Finland but has even heightened political interest which brings out 75 to 80 per cent of the voters each election.

Finland is sometimes considered a buffer between Russia and the Scandinavian countries. Russia and Finland share a 60-mile frontier.

Nuppenen said communists hold of the 200 seats in the parliament but there was little danger of communism taking control.

"We love our independence and freedom," he said.

He said trade pacts with the West... especially England, bolstered the Finnish economy to the point where it cannot be pressured by Russian embargoes.

Admits Getting Disputed Loan

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon's brother, Donald, acknowledged he got a $205,000 loan from industrialist Howard Hughes' tool firm — a circumstance denied last week by the Republican presidential nominee's personal campaign manager.

But, in his first comment on a Drew Pearson column linking the vice president's name with a possible conflict-of-interest deal, Donald Nixon said Sunday: "I have never asked my brother to do anything for me or anyone else in the government; and if I did ask I know he would refuse."

Pearson later said Donald's statement "overlooks several important facts."

Donald issued a statement detailing his financial difficulties, including an unsuccessful effort to save his restaurant business with the $205,000 loan. He accused Pearson of trying to smear his brother.

"I am deeply grieved and concerned to think that any individual would use my business misfortune to influence the outcome of the presidential election," said Donald Nixon.

These recommendations will disappoint anyone expecting something new and exciting from a critic of the public school system, but they appear as wise findings to both teachers and parents who might wonder — while reviewing the busy schedule of today's student — when there is time for learning.

It is not necessary to offer the enticements of a new and glittering program to improve the quality of education. One of the troubles with some public school systems in past years has been the acceptance of glittering promises and revolutionary theories in an almost eager dismissal of methods which are old, but effective.

Dr. Conant has given all concerned with the quality of education — and that excludes few — not only a listing of areas in which education is weak, but suggestions for correcting them.

Singing High 'X' Is Hard Work

NEW YORK (AP) — "Opera takes a lot out of you," said Dorothy Kirsten.

"Singing a high 'X' is equivalent to lifting a 500-pound weight."

Because of the emotional drain, too, the glamorous blonde Metropolitan Opera star doesn't like to sing a heavy role more than once every fourth day.

Top opera stars — like championship boxers — make a ritual of keeping in the best of physical condition. Her training secret is golf.

"It's the perfect sport for a singer," she said. "It helps develop rhythm and proper breathing."

Miss Kirsten came from a show-business family. Her great aunt was a gifted soprano, and her grandfather was bandleader for Buffalo Bill's Wild West show.

As a young girl in Montclair, N.J., she studied singing, dancing and acting. She sang swing music with Kate Smith for two years, later became a protege of Grace Moore, who helped develop her interest in opera.

Miss Kirsten now travels between 75,000 and 100,000 miles a year. Besides her operatic appearances, she does some 20 concerts a year, and appears as guest star on numerous TV programs.

It has been said that behind every successful man is a good woman. She says that behind her husband, Dr. John D. French, a neurosurgeon.

"The most important thing to me is the happiness I know in my private life," she says.

"When I am happy, I sing my best. This is not true of all artists, but it is true of me. My husband keeps me happy. He is a wonderful man."

"I am never — absolutely never — away from my husband more than three weeks at a time."

"This means I have to do much more traveling, but it's worthwhile to me."

Because of her refusal to be away from her Palos Verdes, Calif., home for extended periods, she quit the Metropolitan Opera a couple of seasons back.

She won her point. The Met called her back during an emergency last April, but she rejoined on her own terms. She now is a jet plane commuter between Manhattan and the West Coast.

There Are Many Kinds of Growth

By George Sokolsky

Everybody talks about growth. By growth is meant the increase in the economy of a country. Such an increase may be measured in several ways. Each form of measurement will bring a different result and therefore will lead to a different conclusion.

If we measure growth by the national income produced, it becomes important to translate the dollar realistically from nominal money to real money and the figures reached are very different — and very discouraging.

If growth is measured in terms of tonnage or in terms of kilowatt-hours or some such measurement, the figure will be altogether different. Again, if we compare the increase of capacity for production, say between 1917 and 1960, Soviet Russia can produce favorable figures but if we use figures showing the actual production, the United States is so far ahead of Soviet Russia that there is no comparison.

Alan Dulles, the head of the CIA, put it sharply in this paragraph:

"Khrushchev proposes to build up Soviet industry, the base of Soviet military power, by completing the ambitious seven-year plan which covers the period through 1965. This will still leave him well behind the United States in overall industrial production. But Khrushchev believes that he can devote to military and world power aims a far greater percent age of his industrial production than we are likely to do."

He expects to satisfy his people with a far more modest share of the consumer goods and luxuries that have seemingly become for us so essential a part of our own much higher living standard. Whether he will succeed in deluding his people, who today have far greater knowledge of the outside world than during Stalin's days, remains to be seen."

Our greatest growth industrially was unquestionably between 1870 and 1914; nevertheless the expansions during the two World Wars were enormous and were designed to meet war conditions. Subsequent to World War II, American industry was required to supply for the rebuilding of both allies and enemies.

There is no reason to assume that an industrial plant established to supply the entire world in war and in a reconstruction period after a devastating war can in competitive peace-time utilize an identical plant or increase that plant at the same speed as countries which had no plant at all or whose industries were destroyed by war.

In 1920, steel capacity in the United States amounted to 60,000,000 short tons; by 1945, steel capacity rose to 95,000,000 tons; in 1959, it was 147,000,000 tons. This is real growth in capacity.

However, production fluctuated. In 1920, we produced 46,000,000 tons; in 1945, it was 79,000,000 tons; in 1956, it was 115,000,000 tons; but in 1959, it was 93,000,000 tons.

In 1951, we utilized 100.9 per cent of steel capacity; in 1959, only 63.3 per cent. It is only correct that by 1960, the countries which we helped to rehabilitate and others should have completed their own means of production.

The first, then must be related first of all to the existent plan and its utilization; secondly, to the purpose of expansion and the intended use of expanded capacity and finally whether the expansion is for war which is waste or for consumer consumption which is normal social use. Just to say that we must have growth is to say nothing clear and specific.

Our problem is not growth. It is to find the means to invest free American capital in new industries. The government takes too large a share of the individual's income for public use and thereby removes the incentive to invest in new and expanding industries. Thus, much American capital is exported out of the country not only for the development of industry but for better and larger returns on investments abroad.

When capital is exported, it means that jobs are exported — jobs but not the workers. Therefore a social problem of prime magni-

IT WAS IN SEPTEMBER, just after the opening of the women's college that ornaments the town of Saratoga. As usual, a good many of the girls visited the bank to open checking accounts, writes Frank Sullivan. One of them was a naive freshman. She wanted to open an account very badly.

"How much do you wish to deposit in the account?" asked an official of the bank.

The maid looked at him in starry innocence. "Oh, I don't want to 'deposit' anything," she said. "I just want to open an account."

The Life Story of Richard Nixon

RICHARD NIXON, with characteristic grit, worked his way through Whittier College. He still helped out in the family store. Once in a while he would give his mother a hand with the dishes, but he always pulled the blinds so people couldn't see him at this kind of chore. Dick graduated with an A.B. degree in 1934, second in his class...

... Dick's outstanding achievements at Whittier earned him a scholarship to Duke University's law school. But even with the help of a scholarship Nixon was constantly strapped for money at Duke. To help conserve his meager funds Dick lived with three other students in a small shack in a wooded patch a mile and a half from the university. After taking his law degree in 1937, Nixon returned to Whittier and opened a California law office...

Vegetable Supply Cut By Hurricane

WASHINGTON (AP)—Partly because of September damage by Hurricane Donna, prospective supplies of sweet corn, eggplant, peppers and tomatoes are smaller this fall than last year.

The Agriculture Department, noting this in its October vegetable outlook, also said that supplies of brussels sprouts and lettuce were down moderately.

However, total supplies of vegetables for fresh market sale the remainder of this fall probably are close to those of a year ago, the department said.

Indicated production is moderately larger this fall than last, but the bulk of the increase was in a few early fall crops, much already marketed. However, remaining supplies of broccoli, cabbage and cauliflower are larger than a year earlier, the report said.

Total supplies of frozen vegetables available in the first half of 1961 are likely to be the same to slightly larger than a year earlier, the department indicated. But supplies of canner vegetables probably will be a little smaller. Dry beans, dry peas and sweet potatoes will be scarcer.

Prospective supplies of potatoes available through the winter are slightly larger than a year ago.

The department said demand for vegetables in 1961 is likely to continue strong.

Lodge Says GOP Winning Despite Polls

SOUTH ORANGE, N.J. (AP)—Henry Cabot Lodge, Republican vice-presidential nominee, told a group of 4,000 cheering students today he expected a "tremendous victory" for the Republicans in the presidential election.

Lodge, his wife and Sen. Clifford P. Case, R-N.J., appeared at a student convocation at Seton Hall University.

The former United Nations ambassador delivered a brief speech and then answered questions from the audience for the remainder of his half-hour visit.

Asked whether he thought Soviet Premier Khrushchev wanted to destroy the United Nations, Lodge replied:

"He certainly would like to. He's in the position of a lady who doesn't dare leave the bridge table for fear others will talk about her."

Many of the questions concerned foreign policy and the predictions of pollsters for the election.

Lodge said he felt political polls were a "passing fad" of the American people. "The polls can't predict what's going to happen," he said.

"I feel we are going ahead to a tremendous victory but not because of any polls," Lodge added.

Airline Loses Permit After Fatal Crash

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government has suspended the operating certificate of the supplemental airline whose chartered plane crashed at Toledo, Ohio, Saturday. Twenty-two of the 48 persons aboard were killed.

E. R. Quesada, federal aviation administrator, said in a statement that circumstances of the accident "indicate a gross disregard for public safety and the regulations of the federal aviation agency."

"I am, therefore, invoking my emergency suspension authority against the company's operating certificate."

"I am clearly of the opinion that an emergency, requiring immediate action, exists in respect to safety in air commerce, and I am taking this action effective immediately."

The plane crashed while attempting to take off in a heavy fog.

Sixteen of those killed were members of the football team of California Polytechnic College.

The college chartered the twin-engine C46 transport from Arctic Pacific, Inc., of Oakland, Calif.

The company operates four twin-engine aircraft. Like other supplemental operators, it has had authority to operate up to 10 scheduled flights a month between any pairs of cities, and also unlimited authority to conduct charter flights.

'Crowdmanship' Helps Put Movie Stars into Politics

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—A recent cartoon showed an impudent bid in a campaign headquarters demanding, "I want to know what movie stars support your candidate."

Here is a rundown for like-minded citizens seeking to learn what Hollywood is doing in the presidential race. Folks can't recall when there was so much political activity among the movie crowd.

Both camps are busy supplying talent to party affairs. Both declare no event is too small to warrant attention. The Republicans dispatched Louise Beavers to plump for Nixon at a lunch and free-beer rally in San Fernando. The democrats sent Phyllis Kirk and Jeff Chandler for a meeting of 50 high school kids in Bakersfield.

Entertainers at a $100-a-plate dinner for Lyndon Johnson in Beverly Hills last week included Bob Newhart, Rowan and Martin and the wives of Milton Berle, Nat King Cole, Steve Allen, Gene Barry and Sammy Kahn.

Out-of-town dates get attention, too. Robert Young went to San Mateo, Calif., to introduce Senator Fong of Hawaii. Republicans Edgar Bergen, Tex Ritter, John Payne and Kathryn Grayson made a four-state tour from Springfield, Ill., to Little Rock. Ronald Reagan introduced Senator Barry Goldwater in Bakersfield.

The campaigners think big, too. The Democrats will supply Milton Berle, Louis Prima and Keely Smith, Stan Freberg, Jo Stafford and others for a Kennedy rally in East Los Angeles Tuesday; a crowd of 25,000 is hoped for.

The Republicans are lining up a stellar supporting cast for Wednesday night's Eisenhower-Nixon-Lodge doings at New York's Coliseum. Among the names: Rosalind Russell, Irene Dunne, Ginger Rogers, Cesario Romero, Ray Bolger, Connie Moore.

To date, no one has been able to prove that a single vote has been swayed because a movie star campaigned for a candidate. How, then, do celebrities help the campaign?

"Crowdmanship is more important in this campaign than ever before," explained a Democratic official. "Movie stars provide the window dressing to draw the people."

Public Notice A Vital Right

By JAMES E. POLLARD

A fairly common requirement in the various states is that the local tax commissioners, or whatever authority is responsible, shall publish breakdowns of the local tax structure by taxing units. This usually appears not long before the semi-annual or others periodical tax collection. It usually takes the form of a paid public notice, or legal advertising, in a bona fide local newspaper of general circulation.

Sometimes this tax structure is quite complex. In one state, for example, it is for the entire county. But it includes the local subdivisions such as townships and municipalities, which may be cities or villages according to population.

The rates among these subdivisions may vary considerably. One school district, for example, may have a much higher rate than another because of a large bond issue incident to a new building or buildings. Or one municipality may have a lower rate than its neighbor because it bonded indebtedness is down.

In any case, the tax picture is there for the taxpayer or voter to see and understand. He is, in effect, being put on notice as to this aspect of the public business. It is important to note that his chief source of this information is the bona fide local newspaper which publishes it in a manner prescribed by law.

LBJ Claims Nixon Tossing In Sponge

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson claims that Richard M. Nixon, the Republican presidential candidate, "has decided to toss in the sponge."

Johnson, the Democratic vice-presidential nominee, said the Republicans are now asking President Eisenhower to carry Nixon "into the White House piggyback."

Johnson made the statements Sunday in a press conference along with Sen. Henry M. Jackson of Washington, national Democratic chairman.

Jackson said that during the past week, Nixon has shown "all the symptoms of a defeated candidate."

"Nixon is not talking to the press," Jackson said. "He is swinging out wildly in all directions."

They are calling on President Eisenhower in the last hours of the campaign and despite everything they say, Nixon has refused flatly to debate."

Jackson declared that he believes the failure of the Republican nominee to debate any more on television with the Democratic presidential candidate, Sen. John F. Kennedy, is one of the most significant developments of the campaign. Each candidate has blamed the other for failure to hold another debate.

TAKE ME TO YOUR READER—Washington, D.C., optician Burton Glick fits specially built spectacles on Dodo, a pet spider monkey which underwent surgery last June for removal of blinding cataracts from both eyes. Encased in plastic rims and fastened to the monkey by an elastic band around its head, the glasses enable the pet to see again.

'Crowdmanship' Helps Put Movie Stars into Politics

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—A recent cartoon showed an imperious bidder in a campaign headquarters demanding, "I want to know what movie stars support your candidate."

Here is a rundown for like-minded citizens seeking to learn what Hollywood is doing in the presidential race. Folks can't recall when there was so much political activity among the movie stars.

Both camps are busy supplying talent to party affairs. Both declare no event is too small to warrant attention. The Republicans dispatched Louise Beavers to plump for Nixon at a lunch and free-beer rally in San Fernando. The democrats sent Phyllis Kirk and Jeff Chandler for a meeting of 50 high school kids in North Hollywood.

The campaigners think big, too. The Democrats will supply Milton Berle, Louis Prima and Keely Smith, Stan Freberg, Jo Stafford and others for a Kennedy rally in East Los Angeles Tuesday; a crowd of 25,000 is hoped for.

The Republicans are lining up a stellar supporting cast for Wednesday night's Eisenhower-Nixon-Lodge doings at New York's Coliseum. Among the names: Rosalind Russell, Irene Dunne, Ginger Rogers, Cesare Rovello, Ray Bolger, Connie Moore.

To date, no one has been able to prove that a single vote has been swayed because a movie star campaigned for a candidate. How, then, do celebrities help the campaign?

"Crowdmanship is more important in this campaign than ever before," explained a Democratic official. "Movie stars provide the window dressing to draw the people."

Public Notice A Vital Right

(Copyright)

A fairly common requirement in the various states is that the local tax commissioners, or whatever authority is responsible, shall publish a breakdown of the local tax structure by taxing units. This usually appears not long before the semi-annual or other periodical tax collection. It usually takes the form of a paid public notice, or legal advertising, in a bona fide local newspaper of general circulation.

Sometimes this tax structure is quite complex. In one state, for example, it is for the entire country. But it includes the local subdivisions such as townships and municipalities, which may be cities or villages according to population.

The rates among these subdivisions may vary considerably. One school district, for example, may have a much higher rate than another because of a large bond issue incident to a new building or buildings. Or one municipality may have a lower rate than its neighbor because it bonded indebtedness is down.

In any case, the tax picture is there for the taxpayer or voter to see and understand. He is, in effect, being put on notice as to this aspect of the public business. It is important to note that his chief source of this information is the bona fide local newspaper which publishes it in a manner prescribed by law.

Nearly 40 per cent of the population of Sweden, or about 2.75 million people, have been vaccinated against polio since 1957.

Airline Loses Permit After Fatal Crash

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government has suspended the operating certificate of the supplemental airline whose chartered plane crashed at Toledo, Ohio, Saturday. Twenty-two of the 48 persons aboard were killed.

E. R. Quesada, federal aviation administrator, said in a statement that circumstances of the accident "indicate a gross disregard for public safety and the regulations of the federal aviation agency."

"I am, therefore, invoking my emergency suspension authority against the company's operating certificate."

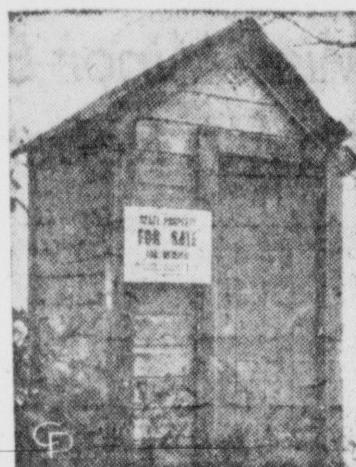

"I am clearly of the opinion that an emergency, requiring immediate action, exists in respect to safety in air commerce, and I am taking this action effective immediately."

The plane crashed while attempting to take off in a heavy fog.

Sixteen of those killed were members of the football team of California Polytechnic College.

The college chartered the twin-engine C46 transport from Arctic Pacific, Inc., of Oakland, Calif.

The company operates four twin-engine aircraft. Like other supplemental operators, it had authority to operate up to 10 scheduled flights a month between any pairs of cities, and also unlimited authority to conduct charter flights.

How Weather Looks Today

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Official Weather Bureau summary of Ohio's weather outlook:

Rain associated with a cold front moving across the state Monday afternoon and evening tapered off to a few light scattered showers Monday night.

Amounts of rainfall ranged from .2 to .4 inch.

Generally cloudy weather prevailed during the early morning hours today, with temperatures in the 40s. Toledo had 45, Cleveland and Columbus 47, and Cincinnati 46.

Major features on the morning weather map were an intense low over Lake Superior and a cold front extending from western New York State to the Carolinas and into southern Florida.

The forecast for today called for cloudy weather with a few light showers over the northern portion with partly cloudy skies over the central and south. Tonight cloudy skies will persist over the north, with clearing over the south. Cooler temperatures generally in the 30s are forecast for tonight.

Hospital Handicapped As City Water Wanes

CONNEAUT, Ohio (AP)—Operations at Brown Memorial Hospital were delayed Monday by vandals who turned on fire hydrants in several sections of the city. Mrs. Dorcas Martin, hospital administrator, said surgery was delayed because there was no water for sterilization. She said there was no water pressure on the first two floors of the hospital.

The water department said some areas were flooded when six hydrants were turned on. Damage was estimated at several thousand dollars. Police Chief Jack Sanford speculated it was the work of vandals 16 or older because a wide area.

Johnson declared that he believes the failure of the Republican nominee to debate any more on television with the Democratic presidential candidate, Sen. John F. Kennedy, is one of the most significant developments of the campaign. Each candidate has blamed the other for failure to hold another debate.

Jackson said that during the past week, Nixon has shown "all the symptoms of a defeated candidate."

"Nixon is not talking to the press," Jackson said. "He is swinging out wildly in all directions. They are calling on President Eisenhower in the last hours of the campaign and despite everything they say, Nixon has refused flatly to debate."

Our MILK

IS GOOD...and GOOD for YOU!

If you have tiny cutters in different shapes you can make attractive miniature cutouts from slices of preserved ginger. Use the ginger garnishes in a bowl of sliced oranges or canned or frozen peaches.

Remember that brown rice takes a good bit longer to cook than white rice and allow the necessary time when you are preparing it for a meal.

Despite Loss, Massillon Still No. 1 in Ohio

Lima Rated as Close Second among High School Grid Teams

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Massillon's state champions dropped their first game in 21 starts Friday night—but the Tigers cling by one shaky claw to the top rung of the state's high school football ratings.

Warren's Panthers, who defeated Massillon 6-0 in 1958 for their last loss, did it again—this time by 19-18 as the Tigers missed three conversions.

Fred Caldwell, who had missed two previous tries, booted the deciding point with 1:28 to go as the Panthers, in their first year under Coach Ben Wilson, stormed from behind three times.

But 44 sports editors voting in the Associated Press poll clung to the consensus that the Tigers are the best team in the state as they kept the Stark County powerhouse on top in the weekly rankings today.

However, the Tigers now are in the midst of the hottest fight the poll has ever experienced. A week ago Massillon led Alliance by 115 points and had 12 of 41 first-place votes.

Today the Tigers boast only three top-place nods, and Lima Senior has moved into the runner-up slot—only five points, or a single sixth-place vote—back of the champs. Third, another 10 points back, are Alliance's 1958 champion Aviators, last-minute losers to Massillon a few weeks ago.

Sandusky, dominating the first-place votes with 12, is a husky fourth with 244 points, only 46 back of Massillon's 290—making it a four-team race for the title and the Rutgers Hall of Fame Trophy.

Warren, which lost two and tied one of its first three games, now has a winning streak of four—and came from nowhere to take sixth place in the poll.

Massillon was not the only Top Ten team to run into a snag. Sixth-ranked Cincinnati Roger Bacon was nosed out 9-6 by unbeaten Cincinnati Purcell and fell to tenth; Dayton Champlain was trounced 30-14 by Dayton Roosevelt and skidded from seventh to among the also-rans, and Niles McKinley, although tied 13-13 by Farrell, Pa., jumped a notch to seventh.

Springfield South, 34-19 winner over Hamilton Garfield, rose from tenth to ninth; Salem climbed from ninth to eighth with a 13-8 win over Boardman, and Marion Harding remained in fifth by blanking Toledo Scott 28-0.

Lima's 56-14 win over Portsmouth aided its elevation to second, while Alliance took a 20-6 victory over Canton McKinley in falling to third. Sandusky triumphed 26-22 over Mansfield.

Hayes Says Bucks To Be At Full Power

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio State coach Woody Hayes expects his Buckeyes to be at full strength when they meet Indiana Saturday in an intra-conference game that doesn't count.

At his press luncheon Monday, Hayes noted that none of the Buckeyes suffered injuries of consequence in last week's 21-10 contest with Michigan State. And, Hayes said, guard Don Young and defensive back Bill German, hurt previously, will be in shape for the Hoosiers' invasion of Columbus.

The game doesn't count in the Big Ten standings because Indiana is under league suspension for illegal recruiting practices.

But the Hoosiers haven't beaten a Big Ten foe this year, anyway. Their lone win in six games was over four-time loser Marquette. Meanwhile the rampaging Buckeyes have won five of six and become an increasing threat for the Western Conference crown.

In scoring, Ohio State and Indiana have almost exactly opposite figures. The Bucks have a 144-48 point edge on their opponents while the Hoosiers have been outscored 49-143.

Rushing and passing, Ohio has outgained the Hoosiers 2,002 yards to 1,170.

Little League Meet Tonight

Election of 10 directors will highlight the annual meeting of the Circleville Little League at 7:30 p.m. today in the Pickaway County Juvenile and Probate Court office.

The 10 directors to be elected will head the local baseball league starting 1960-61. There are 20 candidates for the offices.

Officers will be named from the elected group. There will be an over-all president, a Little League vice president and a Babe Ruth League vice president. The office of secretary-treasurer will be combined.

All parents, spectators and boosters are urged to attend tonight's session to cast votes and take part in the general discussion of the 1961 program.

Bailey Takes Grid Honors 3rd Time

Jake Bailey last night was named Circleville High School's "Outstanding Player of the Week" for the third time this season.

The senior end was credited with the team's top grade after coaches viewed films of the game Friday at Springfield North. He received a mark of 2.24 for offensive and defensive play.

Ferguson Keeps Grid Score Lead

CHICAGO (AP) — Bob Ferguson, Ohio State's great fullback, maintained his Big Ten all-games football scoring lead this week with Iowa's Wilburn Hollis remaining a close second.

Only Bailey and two other players were above the 2-point mark. End Alex Cook came up with a 2.16 and Guard Rupert Rudd was third high with a 2.07.

Quarterbacks Dave Hannahs and Bob Waple, both sophomores, finished at 2.0.

BAILEY, the Tigers' only returning regular from last year, notched his third honor after taking the same award in the Athens and Washington C. H. games. The steady flanker scored the only CHS touchdown and 54 points.

Barging into third place was Minnesota's Jim Rogers, a kicking fullback. Rogers has 44 points, 17 of them on points after touchowns.

The Tigers started the Springfield test in regular fashion as they constantly jolted enemy runners behind the line of scrimmage. However, a few bad breaks on a pass interference call and two fumbles seemed to unlock the door for the hosts who finally started to roll in the second quarter.

The CHS force was set back early with a crippling blow when Center Pat Rooney was removed from the game with a recurring knee injury. The rugged junior griddler is scheduled to visit a Columbus doctor this week and probably will be lost for the season.

Practice yesterday was on the light side, but starting today the Tigers will work full speed in preparation for Friday's invasion by Franklin Heights. The objective will be to stage a comeback after last week's disaster.

Franklin Heights, losing its first league game to Greenfield Friday, is strong. The Falcons' biggest assets are on offense behind the hard running of Fullback Gary Gabriel and Halfback Gerald Martin.

Greenberg Hints Casey May Lead New Team

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Hank Greenberg today confirmed reports that he will acquire the new Los Angeles franchise of the American League and indicated he'd like to have Casey Stengel manage the club.

The 70-year-old Casey, let out two weeks ago after 12 years with the New York Yankees, told reporters he has talked to four major league clubs. "But I haven't had a definite offer from any of them."

"Why, I just had a call from Detroit advising me I was gonna manage the Tigers," confided Stengel, "but it wasn't official. I'm gonna take a few weeks to make up my mind on what I want to do."

The Associated Press learned Monday that Stengel might become both field manager and general manager of the new Los Angeles club if Greenberg acquired the franchise.

Greenberg promptly acknowledged his intent regarding the franchise when he arrived here for meetings with officials and presumably other members of his syndicate, but he refrained from a definite statement on Stengel.

Greenberg: "I'm a great admirer of Casey, but I honestly don't know if he's available."

Greenberg heads a syndicate that is acquiring the Los Angeles franchise. As a vice president of the Chicago White Sox, he owns approximately 20 per cent of that club's stock, which he will dispose of shortly after the American League's next meeting Nov. 17.

Greenberg said that his associate in the White Sox operation, Bill Veeck, isn't involved in the acquisition of the Los Angeles franchise, "and I doubt if Bill will leave Chicago." Veeck also denied, in Chicago, any plan to come here.

Detroit has been without a manager since early last month when Joe Gordon resigned.

A statement quoted Rick Ferrell, assistant to President John F. Fetzer as saying that "Casey Stengel's name had come up several times and that he was seriously considering him as a recommendation to be made to" Ferrell.

Assigned the task of screening some 15 applicants for Tiger manager, Ferrell indicated last week he had pared the list to five or six and that he probably would make his recommendation within 10 days.

Casey Stengel won 37 games and lost 26 as a Yankee manager in World Series competition.

Greenberg Hints Casey May Lead New Team

ANNAPOLES, Md. (AP) — Joe Bellino and his shipmates have a chance to write Naval Academy football history this weekend if they can defeat a tough Duke University football team at Durham, N.C.

The Midshipmen will be gunning for two academy records as well as hoping to preserve a winning streak which started with the last three games last season and included a 43-12 romp over Army.

In defeating Notre Dame 14-7 Saturday they became the first Navy team since the 1910-11 seasons to win 10 in a row, a Navy record. They also became the first team since 1934 to win the first seven games of a season, tying another academy mark.

Bellino, a dazzling halfback who is the academy's best since Buzz Borries of the 1934 team, has played a major role in every one of those 10 victories stretching back into last season. He has scored 13 touchdowns this season.

And Navy has come up with a lot more playing talent around him than anyone expected it would have before the season opened.

Duke has lost only one game, a 31-6 defeat by Michigan, and won five.

Duke's defense has been outstanding, giving up only 10 points in five games.

Greenberg Hints Casey May Lead New Team

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Hank Greenberg today confirmed reports he will acquire the new Los Angeles franchise of the American League and indicated he'd like to have Casey Stengel manage the club.

The 70-year-old Casey, let out two weeks ago after 12 years with the New York Yankees, told reporters he has talked to four major league clubs "but I haven't had a definite offer from any of them."

"Why, I just had a call from Detroit advising me I was gonna manage the Tigers," confided Stengel. "but it wasn't official. I'm gonna take a few weeks to make up my mind on what I want another academy mark."

Greenberg promptly acknowledged his intent regarding the franchise when he arrived here for meetings with officials and presumably other members of his syndicate, but he refrained from a definite statement on Stengel.

Greenberg heads a syndicate that is acquiring the Los Angeles franchise. As a vice president of the Chicago White Sox, he owns approximately 20 per cent of that club's stock, which he will dispose of shortly after the American League's next meeting Nov. 17.

Greenberg said that his associates in the White Sox operation, Bill Veeck, isn't involved in the acquisition of the Los Angeles franchise, "and I doubt if Bill will leave Chicago." Veeck also denied, in Chicago, any plan to come here.

Detroit has been without a manager since early last month when Joe Gordon resigned.

A statement quoted Rick Ferrell, assistant to President John F. Fetzer as saying that "Casey Stengel's name had come up several times and that he was seriously considering him as a recommendation to be made to" Fetzer.

Assigned the task of screening 13 applicants for Tiger manager, Ferrell indicated last week he had pared the list to five or six and that he probably would make his recommendation within 10 days.

Casey Stengel won 37 games and lost 26 as a Yankee manager in World Series competition.

Navy Crew On Verge of 2 Records

Greenberg Hints Casey May Lead New Team

ANNAPOLES, Md. (AP) — Joe Bellino and his shipmates have a chance to write Naval Academy football history this weekend if they can defeat a tough Duke University football team at Durham, N.C.

The Midshipmen will be gunning for two academy records as well as hoping to preserve a winning streak which started with the last three games last season and included a 43-12 romp over Army.

In defeating Notre Dame 14-7 Saturday they became the first Navy team since the 1910-11 seasons to win 10 in a row, a Navy record. They also became the first team since 1934 to win the first seven games of a season, tying another academy mark.

Bellino, a dazzling halfback who is the academy's best since Buzz Barries of the 1934 team, has played a major role in every one of those 10 victories stretching back into last season. He has scored 13 touchdowns this season.

And Navy has come up with a lot more playing talent around him than anyone expected it would have before the season opened.

Duke has lost only one game, a 31-6 defeat by Michigan, and won five.

Referee's Wife Gets License Too

LYNCH, Ky. (AP) — Joe Golden ranks among the top high school basketball officials in southeastern Kentucky. But it seems certain the first boo-boo he pulls he's going to hear about it at home.

The new basketball authority in the Golden household is Joe's pretty blonde wife, Lou — the first woman ever to get an official license from the Kentucky High School Athletic Association.

Lou and Joe will work as a team.

"In the past month she has had a cook book in one hand and a rule book in the other," said Joe.

It was Joe who first suggested his wife try her hand at officiating.

Lou, 28 and the mother of a 10-year-old boy, works her first game Dec. 1.

NEW FACES IN NEW YORK—With the change in managers in New York also has come a change in coaches as Ralph Houk (left), the new field boss of the Yanks, hires Johnny Sain (right), former Brave and Yankee pitcher, to be his pitching coach, replacing Ed Lopat. Houk announced that Frankie Crosetti will be retained.

Zanesville Woman Due For Hearing in Slaying

ZANESVILLE, Ohio (AP)—Mrs. Audrey Mae Galla, 34, will be arraigned Friday on a second-degree murder indictment in the Sept. 3 pistol-slaying of her husband, John, 33, at their Zanesville home. Meanwhile, she's free on $10,000 bond.

Police said she admitted shooting her husband with a .22 caliber revolver, but that she claimed she acted in self-defense when he allegedly threatened her with a nine-inch butcher knife.

CROSSWORD PUZZLE

Iowa Tightens Grip as No. 1 Team; Bucks Move Up to 5th

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The unbeaten Iowa Hawkeyes remain the No. 1 college football team of the nation for the third straight week of the Associated Press poll of sports writers and broadcasters.

With Syracuse and Baylor dropping from the ranks of the unbeaten and Mississippi being held to a 6-6 tie by Louisiana State, there was a shakeup in other top 10 rankings.

Iowa won by a landslide with 46 first-place votes from the 48-man panel which votes weekly. The only other teams to get first-place ballots were Minnesota and

Washington. Each got one.

Mississippi dropped from second to sixth as the result of the tie with LSU. Missouri, a 28-0 winner over Nebraska, shouldered into second place and Minnesota, which meets Iowa in a Big Ten showdown battle Saturday in Minneapolis, took over third place.

Navy, a 14-7 winner after a rugged scramble with Notre Dame, held the No. 4 spot for another week. Ohio State's 21-10 victory over Michigan State moved the winners into fifth place and dumped the losers out of the top ten listing.

Washington took over seventh after nosing out Oregon 7-6 and Tennessee, a newcomer in the top ten, advanced to eighth after whipping North Carolina 27-14.

Syracuse, beaten by Pitt 10-0, slipped from third to ninth on the defeat.

Rice moved into the No. 10 spot by thumping Texas Tech 30-6 and Baylor, beaten for the first time by Texas Christian 14-6, dropped out.

The leaders with first-place votes, points figured on a 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis:

- | | |
|-------------------|-----|
| 1. Iowa (46) | 476 |
| 2. Missouri | 359 |
| 3. Minnesota (1) | 350 |
| 4. Navy | 324 |
| 5. Ohio State | 279 |
| 6. Mississippi | 265 |
| 7. Washington (1) | 142 |
| 8. Tennessee | 108 |
| 9. Syracuse | 91 |
| 10. Rice | 73 |

Others receiving votes included: Baylor 33, Auburn 31, Duke 29, Pittsburgh 19, UCLA 18, Arkansas 10, Michigan State 9, Colorado 6, Utah State 6, New Mexico State 5, Yale 3, Alabama 2, Texas Christian 1.

"They beat us 48-7 last December," said Coach Paul Brown. "We'll try to cut down on that margin."

The Browns Sunday will be up against the same defense which starred for the Giants in last December's lopsided game: Sam Huff, middle linebacker who makes fullback Brown his personal responsibility; flankers Harland Svare and Cliff Livingston; defensive halfbacks Dick Lynch and Landon Crow; safety men Dick Nolan and Jim Patton; and the huge, tough front line of Andy Robustelli, Rosey Grier, Dick Modzelewski and Jim Katcavage.

In five games so far in 1960, the Giants' defense has allowed only 94 points—just two more than the Browns have given up. All three New York victories came on the road, while last Sunday's upset by St. Louis and a tie with Washington were in Yankee Stadium.

Bush said it will take approximately one week to obtain new licenses, compared with four or five months under the present system. The number of forms to be completed will decrease from seven to one.

New Real Estate Permit Procedure Is Outlined

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio's 50,000 real estate brokers and salesmen will throw a new procedure to obtain licenses.

Department of Commerce Director John Bush said real estate men applying for their annual licenses will fill out a single form which will be transferred to date processing cards. All licenses will be issued through the central data computing system under an arrangement with the Department of Finance.

Bush said it will take approximately one week to obtain new licenses, compared with four or five months under the present system.

The number of forms to be completed will decrease from seven to one.

In five games so far in 1960, the Giants' defense has allowed only 94 points—just two more than the Browns have given up. All three New York victories came on the road, while last Sunday's upset by St. Louis and a tie with Washington were in Yankee Stadium.

Negotiators for the Amalgamated Association of Street, Electric Railway and Motor Coach Employees agreed Monday night to continue working, pending the vote, instead of calling a previously authorized strike at midnight.

Michigan State's Duffy Daugherty is the only football coach in collegiate history to beat Notre Dame five straight times.

Iowa Tightens Grip as No. 1 Team; Bucks Move Up to 5th

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The unbeaten Iowa Hawkeyes remain the No. 1 college football team of the nation for the third straight week of the Associated Press poll of sports writers and broadcasters.

With Syracuse and Baylor dropping from the ranks of the unbeaten and Mississippi being held to a 6-6 tie by Louisiana State, there was a shakeup in other top 10 rankings.

Iowa won by a landslide with 46 first-place votes from the 48-man panel which votes weekly. The only other teams to get first-place ballots were Minnesota and

Washington. Each got one.

Mississippi dropped from second to sixth as the result of the tie with LSU. Missouri, a 28-0 winner over Nebraska, shouldered into second place and Minnesota, which meets Iowa in a Big Ten showdown battle Saturday in Minneapolis, took over third place.

Navy, a 14-7 winner after a rugged scramble with Notre Dame, held the No. 4 spot for another week. Ohio State's 21-10 victory over Michigan State moved the winners into fifth place and dumped the losers out of the top ten listing.

Washington took over seventh after nosing out Oregon 7-6 and Tennessee, a newcomer in the top ten, advanced to eighth after whipping North Carolina 27-14.

Syracuse, beaten by Pitt 10-0, slipped from third to ninth on the defeat.

Rice moved into the No. 10 spot by thumping Texas Tech 30-6 and Baylor, beaten for the first time by Texas Christian 14-6, dropped out.

The leaders with first-place votes, points figured on a 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis:

Zanesville Woman Due For Hearing in Slaying

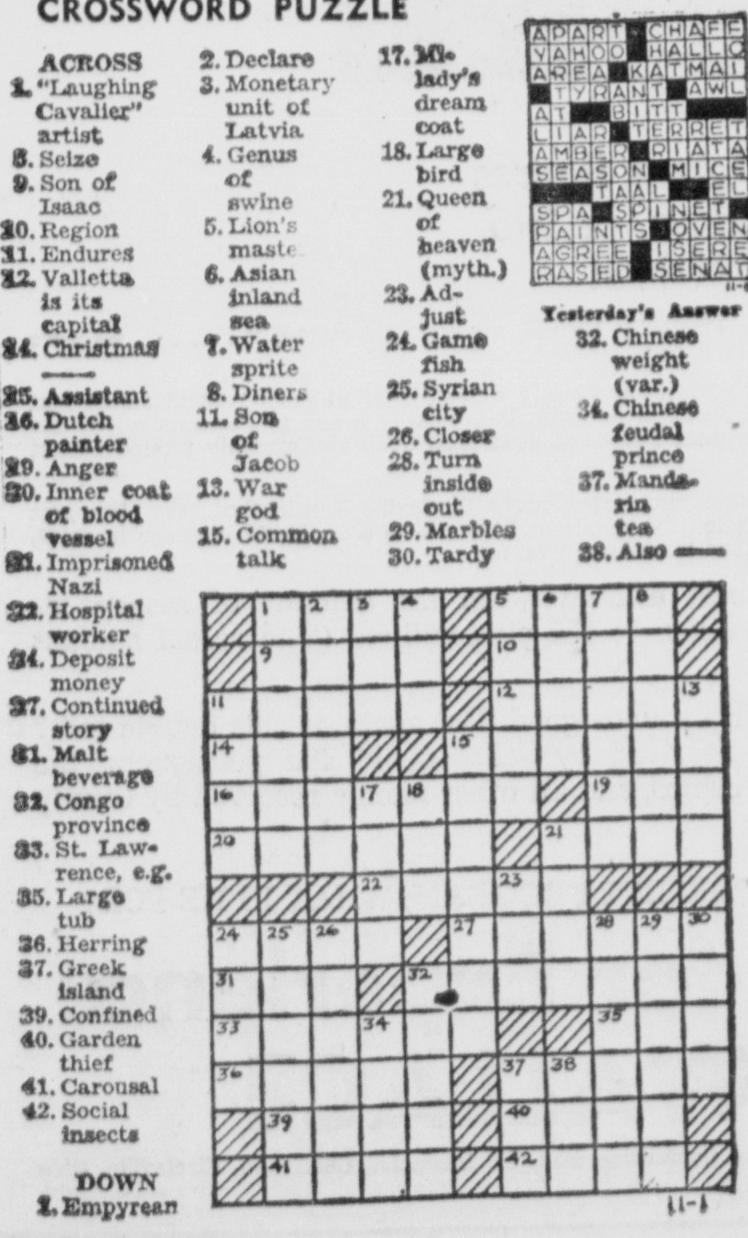

ZANESVILLE, Ohio (AP)—Mrs. Audrey Mae Galla, 34, will be arraigned Monday on a second-degree murder indictment in the Sept. 3 pistol-slaying of her husband, John, 33, at their Zanesville home. Meanwhile, she's free on $10,000 bond.

Police said she admitted shooting her husband with a .22 caliber revolver, but that she claimed she acted in self-defense when he allegedly threatened her with a nine-inch butcher knife.

Ohio Rated as Bellwether But 1960 Trend Uncertain

Editors Note: This story, second in a series, assays the presidential contest in Ohio, one of the Big Six states which swing enormous weight in the electoral college.

By ART PARKS

COLUMBUS, Ohio. (AP) — History indicates the presidential candidate who sells himself to Ohio probably will be the next occupant of the White House.

Only once in this century — in 1944 — has Ohio missed the boat on the presidency.

With that one exception in the last 15 presidential elections, Ohio voters have cut through the web of state and local candidates and issues and cast the Buckeye State's substantial electoral vote for the national winner.

Vice President Richard M. Nixon, the Republican standard-bearer,

Execs Shifted

Jankura Named Manufacturing Head

Starting today certain organizational changes in management will be in effect at Lincoln Molded Plastics, Inc., operations here. The announcement was made by M. W. Burkhardt, vice president and general manager.

Promotions involve the elevation of E. S. Jankura to manufacturing manager. In addition to his present duties, he will be responsible for all factory operations and functions.

Jankura lives in Columbus. He also is an officer of the company, serving as assistant secretary-treasurer.

W. D. Rackett, Route 3, present plant superintendent, will become engineering manager and will be the head of all engineering functions of the company.

Earl Omor, Route 1, Chillicothe, present finishing supervisor, will become plant superintendent, with all manufacturing supervision reporting directly to him.

Other administrative personnel at Lincoln are D. E. Meyers, 107 Collins Court, assistant sales manager; Don D. Hannahs, 560 Springhollow Road, production manager; Ralph B. May, 1134 Atwater Ave., chief tool engineer and Don McFarland, 218 Cedar Heights Road, chief estimating engineer.

Terry Rife, 227 S. Scioto St., will be promoted to finishing department foreman in the manufacturing operation.

er, and Sen. John F. Kennedy, the Democratic nominee, have campaigned often and hard in Ohio.

Both have been received enthusiastically by record crowds.

Both Republicans and Democratic leaders show calm confidence, at least on the surface, that Ohio's 25 electoral votes will wind up on their side. Those 25 votes represent nearly 10 per cent of the 289 total needed to win.

This year's presidential race in Ohio is different from any in the memory of anyone now living. It will provide a classic test of national candidates and issues alone because it is uncluttered by state contests.

Ohio Democratic Chairman William L. Coleman is claiming the state for Kennedy by about 250,000 votes "if the election were being held today, and barring a national emergency."

Coleman's victory forecast indicates a belief Ohio Democrats will be able to overcome two mounting obstacles:

1. The fact that President Eisenhower carried Ohio for the Republican party by a record of 823,000 votes in 1956, receiving slightly more than 61 per cent of the vote.

2. The companion fact that Democrat Alfred E. Smith, the only previous Roman Catholic nominated for the presidency, was snowed under in Ohio in 1928 by nearly 21.

Some Democratic leaders admit privately that they are being hurt in the southern Ohio areas they term the "Bible Belt." But the same leaders say they are confident that normally Democratic, heavily populated industrial areas in northeastern Ohio will more than offset the southern Ohio vote.

Halloween Pranksters Play Too Rough in Cincy

CINCINNATI (AP) — Halloween pranksters are turning to vandalism increasingly in Greater Cincinnati, police report. A dozen more car owners reported the vehicles smeared with paint Monday and police arrested four teen-agers they said took part in similar vandalism.

In Kenton County, Ky., four bridges were set afire, highway signs were torn down and at least one big tree was felled across a road, blocking it to traffic. Cincinnati police reported parked cars damaged in other ways than paint smears, a half dozen false fire alarms daubings on plate glass windows.

If a hummingbird falls off its perch in the dark, it can't find its way back on again.

35 Ohio High Schools Give Edge to Nixon

ASHTABULA, Ohio (AP) — Students participating in a mock election in 35 high schools in various sections of Ohio gave Vice President Richard M. Nixon, the Republican presidential candidate, 12,317 votes to 10,795 for Sen. John F. Kennedy, his Democratic opponent.

Results of the balloting last Tuesday were announced Monday by Bob Pressman, student council president at Ashtabula Harbor High School who served as chairman of "Operation Democracy," the election project believed to be the first of its kind in the country.

The Ashtabula school served as state headquarters for the mock election in which 120 schools were invited to participate.

Voters in southern Ohio schools gave Nixon 70 per cent of the vote while Kennedy received 31 per cent of the vote in northern schools.

Pressman introduced the idea of the mock election last summer at the first workshop for student councils of Ohio high schools at Ohio University in Athens.

New Kind Chicken Resists Infectious Type of Cancer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Agriculture Department scientists have developed chickens which are resistant to an infectious leukemia-like cancer of the bone marrow and blood.

The significant research development in the view of the scientists is that it indicates that animals can be bred for resistance to at least one form of cancer.

Nelson F. Waters of the Agriculture Research Service has found both male and female white leghorns capable of transmitting complete resistance to the disease — erythroblastosis — to their progeny.

The results suggest that one pair of dominant genes may control resistance to erythroblastosis, according to workers at the regional poultry research laboratory at East Lansing, Mich.

WASHINGTON (AP) — An Agriculture Department booklet on how to avoid farm accidents gives a few practical hints in regard to livestock. Most livestock accidents occur with children under 14 and with persons between 50 and 80.

Some of the suggestions:

"Handle stock quietly, gently, and firmly and with suitable handling equipment.

"Speak to an animal before entering its stall; then stroke its neck and back, if it is not too nervous. A nervous animal behaves best when handled by someone in whom it has confidence.

"Ring the nose of a bull. Always lead him with a safety strap. Keep him in a safekeeper pen."

And it concludes this section with the advice: "Never trust any bull."

WASHINGTON (AP) — Agriculture Department scientists have developed an automatic insecticide sprayer designed to destroy crop and livestock pests that may be carried in planes arriving in this country from abroad.

The system consists essentially of small, aerosol sprayers, each designed to treat 1,000 cubic feet of space, placed strategically throughout a plane and automatically controlled by the pilot.

When the pilot presses a button, mouse-trap springs break off the valve tips of the containers and release the aerosol.

What is the Story?

My opponent quotes three entirely different figures on increased taxes on three different days, in two different papers. ALL THREE ARE WRONG!

WHY?

On October 5, 1960, in the Circleville Herald, my opponent stated, "..... we were taxed an additional estimated $467,000,000."

On October 27, 1960, in the Pickaway County News (Ashville) my opponent stated that the "tax hikes and new taxes together with increased fees and prices imposed on the Citizens of Ohio by the present Democrat controlled General Assembly totaled almost $240,000,000 a year".

On October 28, 1960, my opponent stated in the Circleville Herald that "the Democrat controlled Legislature saddled the people of Ohio with a $350,000,000 increase in sales, business, gasoline and other burdensome taxes".

THE MOST CORRECT FIGURE, according to the best estimates, on the amount of money increased taxes will provide in 1960 is from 133 plus million to 155 plus million. (The actual amount will not be known until the year is over.)

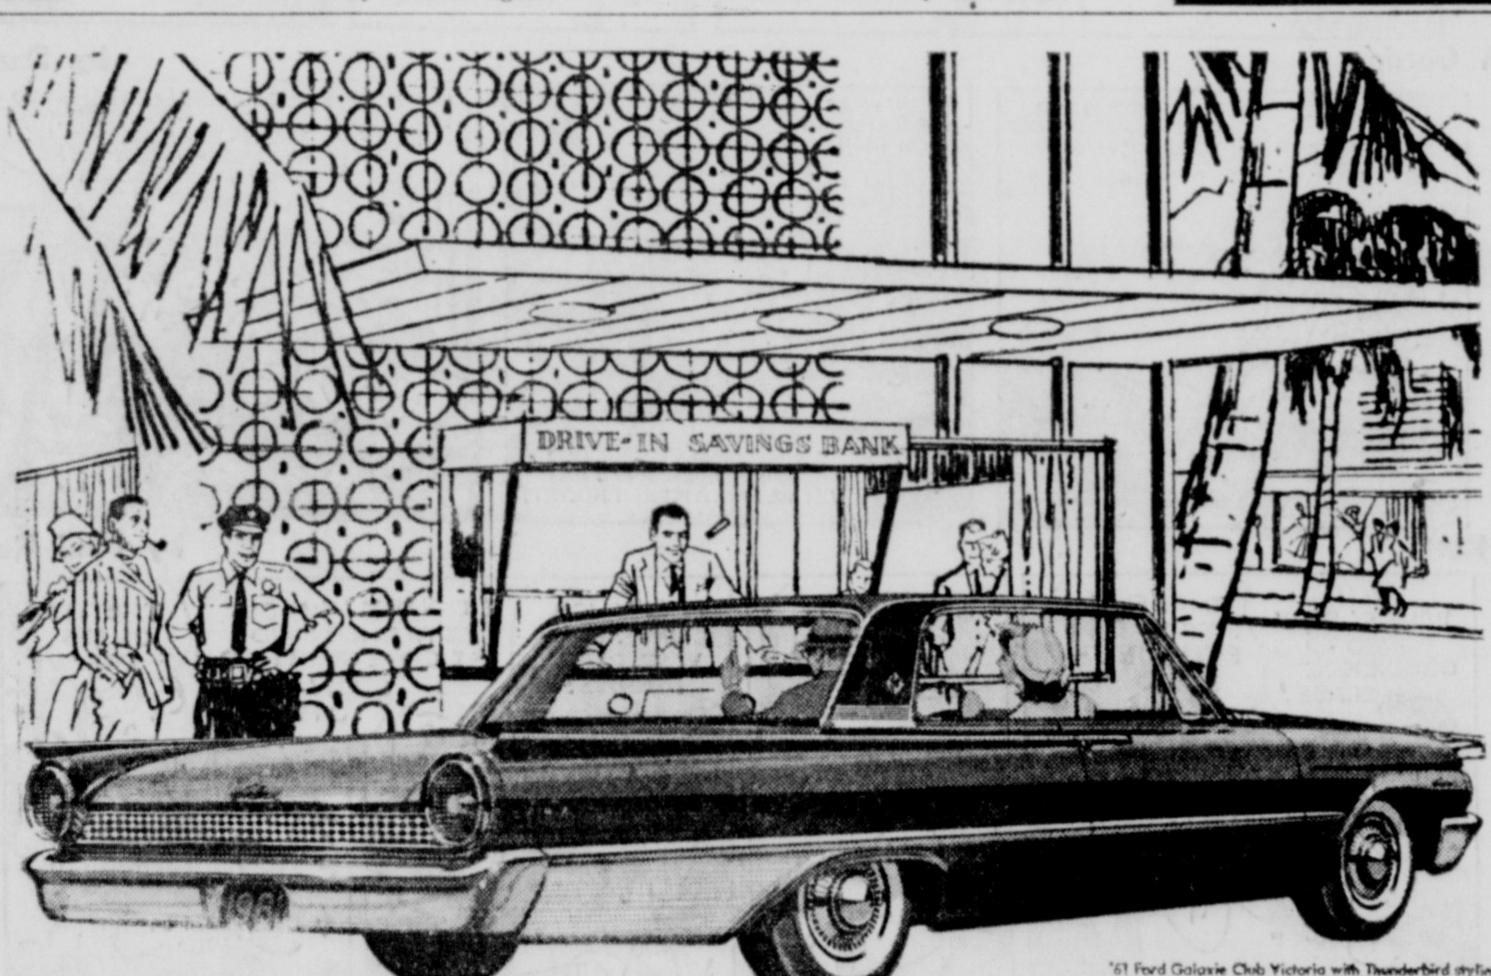

My opponent states that he wants taxes reduced. This sounds good. But again, is this double talk? Would he really cut by 35%, the amount of money received by schools, old age pensioners, the blind, widows; the amount of money received by townships, and all other money received by county government divisions?

In other words, if my opponent is AGAINST THE PRESENT PROGRAM, WHAT IS HE FOR?

Ford led the way with the one car beautifully built to take care of itself... and you

On September 29, Ford Dealers set an industry trend — were first to extend their 1961 car warranty from the conventional 4,000 miles or 3 months to 12,000 miles or one full year, whichever comes first.

Why? Because Ford built the one car to support such confidence. Ford for 1961 is the one car beautifully built to take care of itself!

The '61 Ford was designed and built to the more exacting standards necessary to offer an extended warranty. Ask to see this warranty at your dealer's.

It is significant that Ford has so many take-care-of-itself features not found in other cars, regardless of price. These new Ford features are a triumph of exhaustive research, fine engineering, and quality construction that give you the most reliable Ford ever built. Drive a '61 Ford now.

If a hummingbird falls off its perch in the dark, it can't find its way back on again.

GOP State Chairman Ray C. Bliss says he believes Kennedy has passed his peak and that Nixon's campaign is moving fast on the upgrade "since he came out slugging."

Chairman Bliss says: "I believe Nixon will carry Ohio by a comfortable margin. I try to be honest in my predictions, but it's hard to appraise this campaign in depth. I don't want to be pinned down to an exact figure. We will lose some of the industrial counties, but if we lose some of them by a narrow margin, it really will be a victory."

Newspaper polls have been relatively few and generally have covered local areas only. Those which have made at least a stab at statewide coverage have been too fragmentary to indicate a firm trend.

They do indicate, however, that Nixon has no hope of holding for the Republican party anything like the huge total of 2,262,610 votes piled up by Eisenhower in 1956. This is so even though the official forecast is for a total Ohio vote of about four million—about 300,000 more than in the presidential election four years ago.
